Head teacher: Mrs Vicky Barron BSc Hons GTP Primary

Friday 29th November 2019

Dear Parents and Carers,

We are writing to you to invite you to our poetry slam next Thursday 5th December at 2.15 p.m for the I know, I wish, I will project. The children in Eagle and Kestrel classes have been working really hard with local poet Jonny Fluffy Punk and their class teaching team to write and polish a set of group 'spoken word' poems and are looking forward to performing their exciting, edgy poems to a live audience.

As you'll know from reading the school newsletter over the past few weeks, I know, I wish, I will is part of a national poetry initiative organised by the Eastside Educational Trust <https://www.eastside.org.uk/i-know-i-wish-i-will/>. Facilitated locally by the Cheltenham Literature festival, we are one of only 4 schools in the region to have been chosen to take part in the project (and the only Gloucestershire small school!).

Not only have the children had the opportunity to work alongside a professional poet, but at least one group (and hopefully more!) will be selected to take part in the world's longest youth-led poetry performance, a 25 hour poetry marathon to be staged at the Criterion Theatre in the West End next March.

So please come along for an afternoon of rhyme, rap and rhythm. The event will take place in Eagle Classroom. We look forward to seeing you!

Kind regards,

Mrs Barron, Mr Ringer and Mr Tylour
